

JIRA FILES

This screenshot shows the Jira Backlog view for the 'Retail Store Stock Inventory Analytics' project. The left sidebar contains navigation options: Roadmap, Backlog (selected), Board, Code, Project pages, Add shortcut, and Project settings. The main area displays the 'Backlog' with a search bar and filters for 'Epic' and 'More'. A 'Start sprint' button is visible. The backlog items are listed with their status and priority:

- Issue 1: As a user, I can register for the application b... (Status: TO DO, Priority: SS)
- Issue 2: As a user, I will receive confirmation email o... (Status: TO DO, Priority: SS)
- Issue 3: As a user, I can register for the application th... (Status: TO DO, Priority: BK)
- Issue 4: As a user, I can log into the application by e... (Status: TO DO, Priority: A)

A 'Quickstart' panel on the right offers options to create a project, deliver more often with scrum, create an issue, invite teammates, and connect tools (Slack, etc.).

This screenshot shows the Jira Board view for the 'RSSIA Sprint 1'. The left sidebar is the same as the previous view. The main area displays the 'Board' with a search bar and filters for 'More' and 'None'. The board shows the progress of the sprint, with issues categorized into 'IN PROGRESS 4 ISSUES' and 'DONE'. The 'IN PROGRESS' section includes:

- Issue 1: As a user, I can log into the application by entering email & password (Status: IN PROGRESS, Priority: A)
- Issue 2: As a user, I can register for the application by entering my email, password, and confirming my password (Status: IN PROGRESS, Priority: A)

The 'DONE' section is empty. A 'Complete sprint' button is visible. The 'Quickstart' panel on the right offers options to create a project, customize the board, create an issue, invite teammates, and connect tools (Slack, etc.).
